Borrowing & Returning Books

Borrowing books

Your student ID card is also your library card. You can checkout books by following instructions of the automated library machine. If you want to borrow a book or an audio-visual material without a bar-code, please check it out at the circulation counter.

Faculty, staff, research students and external users, please apply for issuance of a library card.

Borrowing limits

User classification	Volume limit	Loan period	Loan renewal
Undergraduate student / Research student	10 volumes	14 days	once
Graduate student	20 volumes	30 days	once
Faculty / Professor emeritus	30 volumes	30 days	once
External user	5 volumes	14 days	once

Faculty and staff can also use materials in the research rooms.

During spring, summer, and winter holiday breaks, loan period extension (long borrowing) is available. Extended loan period cannot be renewed.

- Materials banned from borrowing: reference books, magazines, part of audio-visual materials, microforms, and rare books
- When books or materials are attempted to be taken out without clearing checkout, the book detection system will sound a buzzer.

Returning books

Materials you have checked out must be returned by using the automated library machine. Audio-visual materials and overdue books must be returned to the circulation counter.

When the library is closed, please return books by using the book chute on the left side of the entrance.

- If you have an overdue book that has not been returned, you will not be permitted to borrow another book for the same number of days that the book remains overdue. (max. 30 days)

Reserving a book

A book that is out on loan can be reserved. Please reserve a book through the OPAC (Online Public Access Catalog).

Requesting a book (University members only)

If a book which you want to use is located on other campuses or in research rooms, you can place a request for the book through the OPAC.

Copying Documents

Library materials can be photocopied within the scope of the Copyright Act. In the library, there are photocopiers which accept cash and a prepaid card. Before using the photocopier, fill out the application form at the circulation counter.

- Materials which are not in this library can be searched and borrowed from another library through the network. (ILL)
- Ordering a photocopy (Copy charge, postage, etc. are paid by you.)
- Borrowing a book (Postage is paid by you.)
- If you want to visit another library, we will make a letter of introduction, if necessary.

Library Manners

- Put the materials back where they belong after you use them.
- Be silent and don't use a mobile phone in the reading room.
- No smoking, eating or drinking is allowed in the library.
Only drink or water in a container closed with a cap such as PET bottle and canteen is permitted.
- Keep your valuables with you at all times.
- Don't leave your belongings or books behind.
- Return books and materials you have borrowed within the specified loan period.

Using Other Libraries on University of Toyama Campuses

When using the Medical and Pharmaceutical Library (Sugitani Campus) and the Art & Culture Library (Takaoka Campus), you need to follow the rules of each library. See the websites for details.

For External Users

Individuals who live, work or commute to school in Toyama Prefecture are eligible for external user memberships. To use the library, you need a library card. Please fill out a form at the circulation counter with your student ID, driver's license or other item that can verify your name and address.
